CHARLES PORTER LAUDED BY FREEHOLDERS FOR MENDING AMERICAN FLAGS

Salem, NJ — The Salem County Board of Chosen Freeholders recognized Charles Porter Jr. for his efforts in mending the flags of the Salem County Veterans Cemetery at no cost.

Freeholder Director Julie Acton said "Mr. Porter's enthusiastic volunteering to repair the Veterans' Cemetery flags is part of what makes Salem County so special."

Stopping the normal business of the Freeholder meeting, Mr. Porter was presented with a special recognition of his efforts and congratulated by the entire Freeholder Board.

Information about the Salem County Veterans Cemetery can be obtained from the Director of Veteran's Affairs Joseph J. Hannagan, Jr. at 856-339-8603.

Salem County Veterans Cemetery and Memorial Park, located on Route 45 about a mile below Woodstown, NJ in Pilesgrove Township was first established by resolution in 1967 and began accepting veterans for burial in 1969. There are currently approximately 2,500 veterans or spouses interred there.
